Message from the Organizers

In this exhibition, the latest products and technologies related to industrial cleaning—including cleaning equipment, systems, and cleaning agents—will be presented in one venue, tailored to a wide range of industries such as metalworking, automotive, and electronic/precision component manufacturing.

First held in 1984, this exhibition marks its 28th edition. As a specialized exhibition focusing on industrial cleaning, an essential element in manufacturing processes, it has continued to expand its related fields while aiming to support the improvement and maintenance of cleaning quality and performance after cleaning. Furthermore, by being held concurrently with other highly specialized exhibitions that support the manufacturing industry, the exhibition seeks to further enhance its scale and the quality of its visitors.

It is sincerely hoped that this exhibition will serve as an effective platform for addressing challenges related to industrial cleaning. The participation of all parties involved is warmly welcomed.
